

RESOLUTION NO. 2019-03

RESOLUTION COMMEMORATING THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY
OF THE CAESTECKER PUBLIC LIBRARY ON HILL STREET

The Town Board of the Town of Brooklyn in regular session duly begun on the 11th day of June, 2019 does resolve as follows:

WHEREAS, the City of Green Lake and the Town of Brooklyn have established a joint public library;

AND WHEREAS, a library has been in existence in this area for 115 years;

AND WHEREAS, in all those years the library has served as a hub for the community – a natural gathering place for residents and visitors to meet and learn and be entertained;

AND WHEREAS, the library is known throughout the region as a warm and welcoming place;

AND WHEREAS, this would not be the case if not for the generous donation of the current library building in 1994 by Mr. Thomas Caestecker;

AND WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas Caestecker has continued his financial commitment to the library both individually and through his work with the Caestecker Public Library Foundation;

AND WHEREAS, the library is celebrating the twenty fifth anniversary in its present location of 518 Hill Street.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Town of Brooklyn congratulates the Library Board of Trustees, Library staff, Friends of the Library, and Library Foundation on the anniversary;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Town appreciates Mr. Caestecker's continuing support of the public library that bears his name;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Sunday, June 23, 2019 be designated a day of celebration of the Caestecker Public Library in acknowledgement of Mr. Caestecker's gift to the community twenty-five years ago.
